The Servant Queen and the King she serves with a foreword by Her Majesty QUEEN ELIZABETH II
A tribute for Her Majesty's 90th birthday

The Servant Queen - and the King she serves is a book produced by LICC, HOPE and the Bible Society as a tribute for the Queen's 90th Birthday. It is beautifully illustrated and uses the Queen's own words to draw out the central role of her trust in Jesus Christ, offering an inspiring, multi-faceted insight into a life well-lived for others. The book is designed to be a conversation-starter to give as a gift to friends, colleagues, or family. As the celebrations unfold throughout 2016, chatting about the Queen may be one of the easiest and most natural faith-sharing opportunities that Christians have and this book could become a catalyst for conversation.

Copies can be ordered through SKCC @ £1 each (if an order of over 10 copies is placed). If you would like to order a copy please let Joyce know by 17th April with your payment.

We would like to formally welcome Ade, Sarah, Bryony, Seren and Madoc Griffin back to this area. Although they have been overseas for the last two years they have remained a part of South Kent Community Church and we are really pleased to have them back with us in person.
 Here is a short update to keep everyone informed of where the family is at - A lot of Ade and Sarah's time and energy is being taken up settling into the area, finding schools, a permanent place to live and employment. Although they know a lot of us are keen to hear about their experiences they have asked to just 'be among us' for a time before sharing with us formally or before finding things they can do with us as a community. They do, however, welcome individuals asking them how they are doing and about their two years away, so don't be shy. We know you all join us in wanting them to feel welcome, relaxed and at home while they find their feet.
