CAP

CAP FOLKESTONE

Each year SKCC has to raise around £25,000 in order to maintain and develop our own CAP Centre, which is so well run by Angela and her team. (This includes £5,000 which we actually pay CAP Central for their services)

In order to achieve such an amount we are dependent on occasional one-off gifts or grants plus this love offering.

Please would everybody prayerfully consider what would be a suitable gift?

Any cheques should be made payable to SKCC. If you are donating by cash and qualify for gift aid, it would be appreciated if you could identify your gift. Perhaps putting it in a named envelope is the most easy and helpful way?

MILLFIELD DROP IN and RAINBOW CENTRE (Food Warehouse)

Please bring donations of the following items to the meeting on 15th May:

Tins of fruit, rice pudding, custard, tinned tomatoes, shaving foam, shower gel, tea, coffee, sugar, cakes, biscuits & packets of soup.

By giving in this way each of us will be helping to serve God's Kingdom.

Tom, Ritah & Keza MacGregor

It has been wonderful to have Tom, Ritah and Keza with us over the past few weeks but the time is fast approaching when we will have to bid them a fond farewell as they return to Rwanda.

Please ask Tom about his work with Azizi life or check out their website at www.azizilife.com

There will be the opportunity to purchase Azizi Life products after the meeting this morning.

If you would like to financially support Tom & Ritah please see Joyce or Tom who will be able to advise/provide appropriate paperwork.
