Heather Pritchard working at Kedesh in Mozambique

Eleven of the Kedesh boys are being sponsored to take vocational courses in electricity, welding, construction and IT at a local college. This gives them skills to use both now at Kedesh, and in the future. It also helps them gain confidence both in themselves and in their own capabilities. Pray that they will put their minds to it and give thanks for the kind sponsor who enabled this to happen.

Mission Aviation Fellowship (a Christian charity based in Folkestone) are excited to be partnering with 4Front Theatre for their UK theatre tour of 'Reckless Abandon' - a feature length stage adaptation of an incredible true story.

2016 marks the 60th anniversary of Operation Auca, an initiative wherein 10 missionaries took the Gospel to the previously unreached Waodani people, a murderous tribe in the Ecuadorian jungle. Their commitment to spreading the message and love of Christ, even in the face of death, is an inspiration to all.

This is the story of the Ecuadorian missionaries, including MAF pilot Nate Saint. It is a story of sacrifice, a story of love and a story of bravery but above all, it's the story of 10 individuals living lives of reckless abandon.

There are 2 performances in Kent on 25th February, 7 p.m. at Deal Community Church and 26th February, 4 p.m. at West Faversham Community Centre.

You can book tickets in advance using eventbrite.co.uk/e/reckless-abandon
