Charity Donations in memory of Johnny Dyer

In response to a desire by some to give financially to causes close to Johnny's heart, the family have set up an online giving page for those who wish to donate. This is purely for those who really have a heart to do this and the family would like to make it clear that no-one should feel any obligation to give.

For those who would prefer an alternative to the online giving page there will be the option to donate by cash or cheque at the service on 28th February. Cheques should be made out to Amor Europe.

As many will know, Johnny led South Kent Community Church in the 1990's. He and Patricia have been pleased to prayerfully support and encourage both Tom MacGregor who founded Azizi Life in Rwanda and Mark Lamb who founded The Kodeni School Project, in Burkina Faso.

The family invites you to donate to these two amazing projects, given life by the power of God.

Amor Europe, now serves both Azizi Life and Kodeni School and will receive donations given in Johnny's memory and share them equally between the two projects.

Azizi Life's Adult Literacy Programme has helped more than 8,000 adults learn to read and write, opening doors to confidence, opportunity, and independence.

Kodeni School is seeking to double the current number of classrooms.

If you would like to contribute something to these wonderful demonstrations of God's love for those in need, in memory of Johnny, please visit the donation page via this link:
