Easter Events

Hythe: The Good Friday procession begins at Waitrose at 9.45 a.m. and makes its way down the high street to the Town Square for approximately 10 a.m. where there will be a short service followed by refreshments at St Michael's afterwards.

Folkestone: Procession of the Crosses - Following the Worship and Witness time in Folkestone town centre (opposite Folca House) at 10.30 a.m. there will be a procession of the crosses to Sugar Loaf Hill. Volunteers are needed to help carry the crosses (part of a 9 man team rotating cross bearers) and also stewards for the event. If you can help, e-mail churchestogetherfolk@gmail.com

Next Sunday, 31st March, we look forward to celebrating 'Resurrection Day' together. Richard Burgess from Gateway Church in Ashford will be sharing God's Word with us.

If you are new to SKCC and would like to find out more about us and what we do please complete a 'get connected' card from the foyer and pop it in the office post box or contact the church office on 01303 251155 or hello@skcc.info
