Congratulations

Please join us in congratulating Wendy Homewood who was recognised for her service to the local community and church by being a recipient of the King's Maundy Money purses. This took place at the Royal Maundy Service last Thursday in Worcester Cathedral and were presented to her by Queen Camilla on behalf of King Charles.

Wendy was nominated by Bishop Rose Hudson-Wilkin who had heard of all that she has been involved in locally following her return from China in 2011 including the following volunteer roles:

Drop In, Folkestone Winter shelter, Urban Pastors (run by Cheriton Baptist Church) including going into local secondary schools, and a befriender of those in financial crisis with Christians Against Poverty. She also helped with the Hope bus explaining the Christian faith and looking out for and praying with those on the streets who needed it

In the last few years, Wendy has had to give up many of these activities due to deteriorating eyesight but she continues to faithfully attend 4 weekly SKCC prayer meetings, speak out for the vulnerable, particularly the health of expectant mothers and unborn children in the South and South East pro-life movement, and meeting with those who are new to the Christian faith helping guide and pray with them, regardless of their circumstances or background.

Wendy is recognised locally walking along the Folkestone Leas. She will stop and speak to anyone she encounters who might need encouragement and offers to pray with them.

Help Needed – Angie Martin needs transport to Heathrow airport on Friday 26th April. She has to arrive 2 hours before her flight at 13:05. If you can help, please either speak to Angie, or contact the church office on 01303 251155 or hello@skcc.info
