Bahrain from The Voice of the Martyrs website

Patrick and Madelaine Murphy, who attend SKCC when they are in the UK, have lived in Bahrain for many years. Please pray for them at this time of unrest in the Middle East.

Overview:

This small island nation is located in one of the world's chief oil-producing regions, but it has relatively small petroleum resources. Therefore, its economy has long relied on processing crude oil from neighbouring countries. Bahrain has experienced significant religious, political and economic tension, resulting mainly from the Sunni-Shiite division among its Muslim populace and its involvement in the global economy. This unrest, coupled with the faithful witness of indigenous Arab and immigrant Christian workers, has led to a season of openness and some response to the gospel among those indigenous to Bahrain.

Major Religion:

Less than 1 percent of native Bahrainis are Christians; nearly all are Muslims. However, Christians among Bahrain's expatriate workers make up 8 percent of the population.

Persecutor:

Families and local communities are the main persecutors, but the government occasionally imprisons or harasses new Christians.

What It Means To Follow Christ In Bahrain

Christian converts from Islam often lose their jobs and social status, and many are rejected by their families. However, some still gather to worship in secret.

Access To Bibles

Bahrainis have limited access to the Bible through the internet and churches.

VOM Work

VOM supports evangelists who work throughout the Arabian Peninsula. They distribute Bibles and other Christian literature, and support and encourage new believers who suffer for their faith.

Prayer:

- Pray for our Christian brothers and sisters who are rejected by their families for leaving Islam.
- Pray for the faithful witness of indigenous Christians and immigrant Christian workers in Bahrain.
- Pray that Bahrainis will remain open to the gospel.
- Pray that Christians in Bahrain will have access to God's Word.
- Pray that religious, political and economic tensions in Bahrain will help lead Muslims to Christ.
