- to improve our general ability to assist SKCC attendees and the wider community;

WHO SEES YOUR INFORMATION

The information you provide to us will be held on the SKCC database and on a software platform called ChurchSuite (registered company at 2nd Floor, 1 Broadway, Nottingham, NG1 1PR).

This information may be accessed by or given to our office team at SKCC, and our service providers who act for us for the purposes set out in this policy or for other purposes approved by you.

We do not sell or pass any of your personal information to any other organisations and/or individuals without your express consent, with the following exceptions:

- By providing us with your details, you are giving SKCC your permission to transfer your data to our service providers, such as MailChimp, to enable fulfilment of the purpose for collection.
- Where such details are shared we ensure that there are clear restrictions in place for the use of your information to the purpose for which it is provided and ensure it is stored securely and kept no longer than necessary.
- We do not store details online nor do we pass any information to third parties, except where we are legally required to do so, to assist fraud reduction, or to provide a service requested and minimise credit risks.

Sensitive Personal Information: SKCC may collect and store sensitive personal information such as health information, religious information (church attendance) when you and/or your family attend, register for church events and conferences. Your personal information will be kept strictly confidential. It is never sold, given away, or otherwise shared with anyone, unless required, by law.

HOW LONG WILL WE USE YOUR DATA FOR?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

This means that we will generally retain your personal data for as long as you are a SKCC member but will delete your data if you stop attending SKCC (unless you ask us to retain your contact details). We are also required to keep records of all giving for at least 6 years, whether you attend SKCC or not.

KEEPING DETAILS UP TO DATE

Please tell us if your contact details change so that we can keep our records up to date.

You can change the way we contact you or unsubscribe at any time by contacting us at SKCC's office or by changing your preference links on skcc.myiknowchurch.co.uk.

ACCESS TO YOUR INFORMATION

You can request access to the personal information that SKCC holds about you by contacting SKCC's Privacy Officer as set out below. We will provide you with access to your personal information within one month, unless we are legally authorised to refuse your request or if your request is deemed manifestly unfounded or excessive. In the rare event that we do refuse a request, we will inform you why and let know that you have the right to complain to our Privacy Officer and the statutory supervisory bodies.

If you wish to change personal information that is out of date or inaccurate, please contact us. SKCC will take steps to correct any of your information which is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date. If you wish to have your personal information deleted please let us know and we will delete that information wherever practicable.

We may refuse your request to access, amend or delete your personal information in certain circumstances. If we do refuse, we will provide a reason for our decision and, in the case of amendment, we will note with your personal information that you have disputed its accuracy.

SECURITY

SKCC will take reasonable steps to keep secure any personal information which we hold and to keep this information accurate and up to date. Personal information, held electronically, stored on a secure server or secure files.

The Internet is not a secure method of transmitting information. Accordingly, SKCC cannot accept responsibility for the security of information you send to or receive from us over the Internet or for any unauthorised access or use of that information. We take security measures to protect your information from access by unauthorised persons and against unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction and damage. Your information will be held for a reasonable period or as long as the law requires or permits.

DATA BREACH POLICY

In the event that a Data Breach has been discovered the Church Privacy Officer will be notified immediately. A Data Breach, confirmed or suspected, is any incident that may compromise the confidentiality, integrity or availability of systems or data either accidentally or deliberately. Such incidents could include:

- Loss or theft of confidential or sensitive data or equipment on which such data is stored (e.g. loss of laptop, USB stick, iPad/tablet device, or paper record)
- Equipment theft or failure
- Unauthorised use of, access to or modification of data or information systems
- Attempts (failed or successful) to gain unauthorised access to information or IT system(s)
- Unauthorised disclosure of sensitive / confidential data
- Website defacement
- Hacking attack

The Church Privacy Officer will investigate the breach and determine any corrective measures that need to be implemented, with appropriate levels of urgency. SKCC's Privacy Officer will notify the Information Commissioner's Office if it is likely to result in a risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals e.g. if it could result in discrimination, damage to reputation, financial loss, loss of confidentiality or any other significant economic or social disadvantage. SKCC's Privacy Officer would also notify those directly concerned if the breach is likely to result in a high risk to the rights and freedoms of individuals.

SKCC's Privacy Officer will maintain a record of all Data Breaches.
